

Jody Ebling, Cabaret & Jazz Singer

Jody Ebling is a Victory recording artist who has worked in all of the top clubs in Boston and New York City, including the famed Blue Note. She has performed regularly at the famous Friends Restaurant, owned by Elton John, in London.

She also has toured Florida and New England extensively with her one-woman show, "Broadway Baby." Jody has provided narration for museum displays and meditation tapes as well as voice-overs for many television and radio commercials.

Jody also has appeared in several independent films.

Jody is a member of SAG and AFTRA.

She has toured with the Cab Calloway big band led by Calloway Brooks; appeared as a featured vocalist at the Festival Lyric on the island Belle Ile in France; and performed as the featured soloist with the White Heat Swing Orchestra in the Boston Harbor Hotel guest artist series. She has had the pleasure of working with many wonderful entertainers, including Steve Solomon and Freddie Roman.

In addition to recording jazz standards and her own compositions, Jody has recorded songs written by Tootsie Roll Chairman and CEO Mel Gordon, Robert Hitz and Dennis Livingston.

Jody receives standing ovations wherever she performs.
